Subtle Suggestion.

Subtle Suggestion.

Running through the petitions, and more particularly the supplemental petition, there is a subtle suggestion that this court has introduced a practice which tends to undermine the rights and abridge the privileges of those who stand accused of crime.

The theory propounded seems to be, that a writ of error to the judgment of a trial court is one of the rights of a person convicted of crime; while the truth is that a review by all appellate tribunal, whether upon an appeal or write of error, is no part of "due process of law."

The inallenable rights of a person accused of crime are thus stated in the Bill of Rights: That, in all captul or eriminal procedulous, a man battle or eriminal procedulous, a man battle or eriminal procedulous, a man battle or evidence in his favor, and to a speedy trial by an impartial jury of his vicinage, without whose unanimous consent he cannot be found guilty; nor can he be compelled to give evidence against himself; that no man be deprived of his liberty, except by the law of the land or the judgment of his peers."

Our statute prescribes the rule which quaintances have succumbed to diseaves brought on by a common cold. When you fully realize the danger you will cortainly give every cold the attention it deserves. As a quick cure for colds, no remedy has been more successful or stands higher in public esteem than Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It is famous for its cures of this most common allment and can always be depended upon. Pneumonia never results from a cold when it is taken. It is pleasant, and safe to take and may be given to children with implicit confidence. For sale by all druggists.

ciently to appear that our practice is not an innovation upon that of our pre-decessors; that we are not perverting or diverting the administration of justice from its ancient and accustomed course; but that we walk in the beaten path pre-scribed to us from the earliest period in this Commonwealth, by judges whose names will always be remembered and revered.

BIG CROWD WATCHES AUTOMOBILE RACES

Louis S. Ross Succeeds in Breaking Record for Steam Cars.

Cars.

(By Associated Press.)

ORMOND, FLA., Jan. 20.—Phis has been an ideal day for the automobile races, and while but few records were broken, the sport was very enjoyable and the crowd delighted.

The weather moderated considerably, and by noon the temperature was pleasant, with a clear sky and a light north what. The afternoon programme was for all the kilometer events, and it was expected that with the many fast cars that are here the world's record would be wiped out. Baras made the kilometer record in Ostend, Beigium, last year in 21 1-5 seconds. Drivers of fast machines were after this record to-day, but the nearest approach to it was Arthur MacDonald. In twenty-three flat, one and three-fifths seconds too slow. The American record for one kilometer of 26 2-5 seconds, made by Charles Hasic on the Ormond course last year, was lowered by Mr. MacDonald by two and three-fifthis seconds. Jaulis St. Hoss broke the world's record for steam cars. This record of 127-35 was held by Lebion, made in Douradan, France, in 1903. Mr. Ross to-day made the kilometer, which is about three-niths of a mile, in 121-15, lowering, the world's record by three and two-fifths seconds, and the American record, held by limiself, 55 2-5 seconds for a mile. There was no previous kilometer record for steam cars.
